

I t was like the first kiss.
That was how it felt.
How did it happen ?
How long did it last ?
There were tingles throughout my lips.
They were on fire.
I didn't know what to do.
I sat in the gutter and felt so many things at once.

Alexander Giudice

When I was fastening to tiny funny things,... well, it seemed like small world.
But when we met, things were only going down the drain.
It was bloody shit hole !!

I've actually known Kiki for little more than a week now, but we first met (convolutedly) through literature essentially.

I was wandering into a bar, carrying a paperback book I'd acquired recently, (something from the Nightside by Simon R. Greene, in case you are interested. I would recommend it, it is a good read)...

Anyway, this rather sparked her interest, and led to a several hours conversation on fiction generally-random, and kind of geoky, but true.

I have been married twice and my first husband gave me away to my second husband, at my second wedding.

Linda

The meaning of love is loving someone, no worries when he gets grumpy.
Love is unconditional.

Martin

On a train from Boghale to Fas : She was American and we clicked very quickly. She shared a hotel room with me the first night, and we stayed together a few days and nights.

After, I had to fly to India and her to Boghale.

The first night was fantastic. We felt so much sympathy and shared interests in travel, politics and food.

Everything we saw during the trip seemed in colour instead of the usual black and white.

We exchanged over 100 e-mails, and I am going to meet her again in Hua. I have the intention of making this relation permanent.

Tony Gonzalez

We met on the London underground and I asked you to go out.
We went on our first date and I fell insanely in love the next Wednesday.

Chad

I once fell off a bar seat in what was supposed to be a passionate embrace.

Wayne

We met each other at the primary school when we were in the class. We got very close to each other, and our first kiss was in toilets at a school party. Our first year together, a lot of things happened : some funny things and some bad ones. But it was cool.

An example of a bad thing is that we fell in the water when we were kissing. It was bad and funny too though...

Arena & Verbo

We both live in Paris. We met on the internet. We got engaged in Florence. Our wedding was the best ever !

We intended to come and work in London, and hope to meet there many fun people !

Scu & Adrian

My first kisses were at primary school. Was I 6, 7, or 8 ? I can't remember. But my girlfriends were called Sharon and Kelly. I definitely enjoyed it, but I don't think I really knew what I was doing. My main memory is the giggles of the other children as they watched us.

I wonder what Sharon & Kelly are doing now?

Nigel

We met at Battersea Park. I was having a leisurely cycle when she was rollerblading.

I was cycling so fast and looking back at her that I hit a tree and fell off !!!!

She came to help me and offered me her number as well !

I feel a strange calmness and security when I am with her !

LOVE IS BLISS !!!

Marta

I once had a beautiful relationship with a boy who didn't speak my language. We used to horseride together, and sing. I then found out he previously loved a young goat ! With fear of STD, I finished our love affair.

Elise

I met my future wife in a library.
I fell in love at this moment.
I made a proposal in 3 months.
Now we are happy.

Eugeny

First date : we met in feminist theories class. I thought she was straight. Roommate thought she was gay. Placed bets fold my roommate : if she was gay, I should have her. Turned out she was gay and we dated for over a year.

Sarah

The most romantic thing I ever did was taking my girlfriend on our 6th month anniversary to the balcony of the Royal Festival Hall, and open a bottle of Champagne and light candles. The view was wonderful !

Danny

I met my wife Laurie at a bank in Toronto. I would do the daily deposit for the company I worked for and she was a teller. I was rather shy but the doorman was the one who suggested I ask her out.

The first date was the usual - dinner after work on a Friday, and then to a bar. The first night wasn't until a couple of months later. The wedding proposal took place several months after we met at a party. I think I took a booze to get the courage to go through it. The wedding was at a church, the usual deal. The hardest part was the speech at the dinner after - I was nervous and I am not the greatest public speaker ! Our honey moon was in Acapulco. The first few years were great, but alas we grew apart. I became more open and out going, and wanted to explore the world. And she wasn't a house + kids woma. We left on good terms but I still have fond memories.

Paul

We met on a sunny summer day.
I saw his blond curls shine.
We learned more about each other along the lack side.
It couldn't have been more memorable or romantic !

Sarah

I was unwell. She gave me a Berocca (vitamin c) tablet. From then on, I knew she'd take care of me when I am down and out, and HORNY !! 6 years on and we are still together !

Our uppers are BEROCCAS and BERO-COCK US !!

Berocas and Luver !!!!

Sono in vacanza in Londra da nubile... con un gruppo de nubile.
Invece di trovare un marito, ho trovato una moglie !
La stiga me persegue.

Katiuscia

For me, Love means to have good time together with one person. I don't like people who stay married although they don't love each other anymore. They should just separate and continue their own life.

Jesse

Well...the girl I fell in love with was named Mona. We first kissed in my car, and we were so in love !!! I loved her so much that she got scared and left me. She was a uptown girl !!!!

Sono appena arrivata a Londra... e ho trovato moglie!!
Sono felice !!

Monica

Je l'avais repéré depuis le collège. Mais lui ne se souvenait pas de moi. On s'est revu par un presque parfait hasard, et il m'a enfin remarquée. Un mois plus tard, c'est lui qui a fait le premier pas, sur une plage en Normandie, sous les étoiles.

Il faisait froid : notre premier baiser fut glacé !... mais depuis nous nous sommes réchauffés !!!

Lucie

When I met my second boyfriend at university, for the first time, I really felt like I had met someone who could understand me, and someone who could fill out my empty spaces. Because I felt so relaxed with him, I felt I could show him everything, even the bits that I shouldn't have & things that could make him dislike me.

Even then he stayed by my side & although we are not longer together as a couple (I became too dependant, and I felt I should learn to stand on my own two feet in order to become a better person) I really feel like I have been given a treasure in the form of a good friend.

Kasumi

One upon the time, in 1964... I was working in the country at Nevers, (just returning from two years in the algerian war...), a beautiful town on the river Loire, and used to come to Paris to see my family once a month...

One day, a friend of mine, knowing I was there, gave me a call and said : "It has been a long time since we last met ! I want to see you ! I am going to a "surprise party", near St Germain des Pres. Would you like to come with me ?"

I said : "OK, but under one condition : "I bet you I'll flirt with the hostess (that I didn't know at all at this moment)"... and I actually won the bet ! While my friend was enjoying life with some whiskies...

At midnight we were together (her and I) in the "Halles", a place where all the grocers and restaurants can go to buy fruits, vegetables, fishes, meat and so on... and five years later we got married...

We had 3 sons, 3 grand sons, 2 grand daughters (and another one in preparation...)... but unfortunately my wife died without seeing any of them in 1992..

But sometimes dream is also part of our life, like being at Speaker Corner today and seeing gorgeous Laetitia and... marrying her... under the sun with happiness.

Thank you for that "out of time minutes" with you Laetitia.

Good, very good luck in your life.

Lots of love and everythings

Jean-Bruno

I was single till I was 21.

My first kiss was when I fell in love with her. It was lovely when we met and it is still love now ! After 10 years of separation !

Steve

It was my brother's wedding this year - the first wedding in my family I have ever been to. There is something like a spell about it. A wedding can be a break, a curse, or a season of sadness or unluckiness in love. I hope my brother's wedding will have this magical effect for all of us and I am sure that your wedding has created some magic today !

Phoebe

I met Pren on the internet. At first, I was playing. But day after day, I learnt a lot from her. Now, I miss her every single day I am not with her. I am afraid to loose her. My first date was in a Marocan restaurant. She looked at me and from this moment, I knew that it was her.

I was so in love with a Japanese boy five years ago. But he went to Vietnam to study. I was very sad and crying every day. Then I decided to go to see him in Vietnam. We had a beautiful time there, I still remember everything what he said. Vietnamese people, food, weather... It was an impressive feeling that I have never had before.

Chiho

I am a scientist in Germany.

I have 2 childs - a boy who is studying in London and my daughter who is studying in Berlin.

I am staying in berlin for a birthday ceremony, and wish Laëtitia much luck for her life and her book project.

Sabine

She nags at me all the time !!!!

I met her in a supermarket. I didn't want to, but I had to start it somewhere - so it started here !

I took her for a drink on a Tuesday, we were making love on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and chilled on Sunday !

David

We met in an orchestra. The first date was in a Japanese restaurant where I didn't like the food. We had 3 weddings : 2 in England, 1 in japan.
The honey moon was in Venice, Isle of Wight.
Best holidays together : Austria 2004.
Funny moment in our life : too many to write down.

Neil & Noriko

I am from Germany and I am in London for holidays with my future wife. We were both working at the same company when we met. It took us several months to notice each other, so it was not love at first sight. She made the first step and asked me for a date, which was a romantic night which ended with a lot of kisses.

We have been together for one and a half year now, and we moved together six months ago.

A couple of weeks ago, we decided to get married next year.

Uwe

From friends introducing us.
Went to the movies for our first date.
Made it in a catholic church.
100 people at the reception.
We went to Bermuda for our honeymoon.
We are happy to be married since 37 years.
We have 2 children and one grand child.

Kathy

I met Yina in 1983.
We got married in 1985. We were divorced in 1988.
I loved her at that time.
But I am over her now.

Ken

Conoce una chica en un viaje a Grecia. Ella era de mi país.
Regresando a nuestro país, comenzamos a salir y conocimos mejor. 2 años después nos hicimos los mejores amigos y ahora estamos enamorados.

Oscar

My most memorable moment :
I met my dear love, and we travelled to Hong Kong.
This was the most enchanting encounter.
I had love at first sight.

Lloyd

I am very lucky to be able to marry you Laëtitia.
I have been married to my beautiful wife for many years.
I always wondered how to have 2 beautiful wives in this country !!??
Now I found the answer.

Jacques

I was working in a bookshop, selling books on travel. She came in, I didn't recognise her, but Rufus who was about to steal a book did.

It was Windna Ryder. She left me her phone number, but I lost it.

A few days later, my roommate found it. So I called her and after meeting her and interviewing her at the Ritz (I had to pass for a journalist from Horse and Hound), I invited her to my sister's birthday. After the party we had a great night in my room, but the journalits found out about it, and put the story in London's tabloids. That made us split. After a month or so, we understood that we loved each other and we married.

Gepediah